

TAKHONE LODGE ORDER OF THE ARROW

Takhone Lodge

Wimachtendienk Wingolauchsik Witahemui Awards

The purpose of these three awards is to recognize Arrowmen who live and have exemplified in their actions in one of the three founding ideals of our Order. There are three separate awards. The Wimachtendienk award is bestowed to Arrowmen who best exemplify the founding principle of brotherhood throughout their actions. The Wingolauchsik award is bestowed to Arrowmen who best exemplify the founding principle of cheerfulness throughout their actions. Lastly, the Witahemui award is bestowed to Arrowmen who best exemplify the founding principle of service in their actions.

All three of these awards will be bestowed by a nominating committee comprised of the Chapter Chiefs and the Lodge Key 7. The Lodge can bestow a maximum of three of each award per year, for a possible total of nine. However, there must always be an equal or greater number of awards given to youth than adults. Any Arrowman needs to be in good standing with the lodge to be eligible for the award.

All nominations for the award are due to oa7.org/wwwawards or the Lodge Adviser 2 weeks prior to the Winter Banquet.

The award consists of a paddle pendant suspended from a ribbon meant for formal wear around the neck. Each of the awards shall have its own color ribbon.

The colors shall be as follows:

Wimachtendienk - Blue

Wingolauchsik- Yellow

Witahemui- Green

Each recipient will also receive a certificate that is suitable for framing.
